Executive-MBA (with Specialization in Forensic Accounting & Fraud Investigation / Financial Management / Human Resource Management)

Executive MBA course also known as "E-MBA" is a perfect MBA course for working professionals who wish to enter the world of management in the corporate sector. It is the most sought-after master of business administration course among working individuals. It helps one to be able to adapt to the rapidly changing business environment and stay relevant in the job market.

The Course will provide a platform to share knowledge while gaining the managerial skills you need to climb up within your organizations.

It provides an opportunity to the working professionals to choose specializations based on their interest or the direction in which they would like to expand their professional career. The course has been designed in such a way that a person with no prior knowledge of Management can also enroll and learn while they remain in touch with their present skills. The course does not contain any overlapping of knowledge that a person with an experience would have. This allows optimal utilization of time and efforts ensuring that they do not have to learn something that they are already familiar with.
